Instructions for:

1) ANSVAR POLICYHOLDER

- If you agree to provide a hirer of your premises cover under your policy for public liability (whether or not a charge has been included), then a copy of this summary and the Hirers' Public Liability Extension should be provided to the hirer.
- You should keep a record of each hire or loan of the premises.
- Any tenants or sub-tenants using your premises should arrange separate insurance cover in their own name as the Hirers' Public Liability Extension is not designed to provide the cover they would need.

2) HIRER OF THE POLICYHOLDER'S PREMISES

- This summary outlines the main features of cover and significant exclusions that applies to you.
- Do read the Hirers' Public Liability Extension (you should be given a copy of this document by the policyholder) that contains all the terms, conditions, exclusions and special requirements that you need to comply with.
- Hirers' Public Liability Extension is provided in respect of the use of our policyholder's premises only and does not extend to your activities at any other location.
- It is your responsibility to check with the policyholder that their insurance policy has not been cancelled and that the period of insurance covers the date(s) when you use the premises.
- The Hirers' Public Liability Extension may not be sufficient to meet your insurance needs and you should consider obtaining advice from an insurance advisor about having your own insurance policy.
- At the request of the policyholder, we will defend claims and pay for damages to third parties if you are found to be legally liable.

Making a claim

- If a claim is made against the hirer, then the hirer must notify the policyholder straight away.
- The policyholder must not delay in advising us or their insurance advisor about a claim.
- Should the hirer notify us in the first instance, we will need to obtain a request to deal with the claim from our policyholder.
- The hirer and the policyholder must not make any promise to pay a claim.
- Any letter or document in respect of a claim must be sent immediately to us unanswered.
